10. Campingplatz München Thalkirchen

This is located directly in Munich on the Isar.

A quick dip in the Isar in the morning, followed by breakfast on the campsite terrace.

Then we cycle upstream towards Wolfratshausen. Always along the beer gardens, of course: the Menter'schwaige, the Waldwirtschaft, a little further away the Gasthaus zur Mühle.

For those who want a more sporty ride, the Isartrails are recommended. The routes are ideal for mountain bikers: „Distances between one hour and one day are possible“.

11. Seehamer See Camping

Small, idyllic and lovingly run family business between Munich and Salzburg.

Our campsite is super suitable as a weekend domicile for stressed city dwellers, or as a stopover for holidaymakers on the outward/return journey to/from the south.

On the other hand, it is the perfect starting point for many activities in the foothills of the Alps!

12. Chiemsee Camping Rödlgries

Located between the southern shore of Lake Chiemsee and the Chiemgau mountains. Two worlds of experience meet here. On the one hand, the longest natural bathing beach on „Southern Germany's“ second largest lake, on the other hand, the impressive mountains of the Chiemgau Alps. In the immediate vicinity you will find wonderful hiking trails, castles, fortresses and mountain railways, as well as swimming pools, miniature golf, golf, tennis courts and indoor tennis courts, riding horses, gliding, rafting, paragliding, hang gliding and ballooning.
